DEFENDANT DERRICK FARMER'S ANSWER AND DEFENSES TO
PLAINTIFF'S FIRST AMENDED COMPLAINT

COMES NOW, Defendant Derrick Farmer, individually, and files this his Answer and Defenses to Plaintiff's First Amended Complaint (hereinafter "Complaint"), showing this Honorable Court more fully as follows:

FIRST DEFENSE

The Complaint fails to state a plausible claim upon which relief can be granted against Defendant Farmer and therefore should be dismissed.

SECOND DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims against Defendant Farmer are barred to the extent applicable by the equitable doctrines of waiver, estoppel, laches, and unclean hands.

THIRD DEFENSE

Any claim under O.C.G.A. § 34-6A-1 et. seq. must be dismissed because Plaintiff was not disabled as a matter of law.

FOURTH DEFENSE

Without admitting that Plaintiff was disabled within the meaning of Georgia's Equal Employment for Persons with Disabilities O.C.G.A. § 34-6A-1, et. seq., or the Americans with Disabilities Act, any claim of disability discrimination is barred because Plaintiff was not a qualified individual with a disability within the meaning of either Act.

FIFTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff's damages, if any, are the result of Plaintiff's own conduct or the conduct of third parties for whom Defendant Farmer is not legally responsible.

SIXTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff is barred for failure to exhaust administrative remedies as to any claim premised on alleged conduct that was not specifically described in the charge of discrimination on which Plaintiff bases her contention that she has exhausted administrative remedies.

SEVENTH DEFENSE

Any other defenses herein notwithstanding, there is no causal connection between Plaintiff's alleged attempts to exercise rights under applicable law and any employment action taken by Defendant Farmer.

EIGHTH DEFENSE

Any other defenses herein notwithstanding, Plaintiff cannot establish that but-for alleged bias against her alleged disability, she would not have been subject to the employment actions about which she complains.

NINTH DEFENSE

Any other defenses herein notwithstanding, any action taken by Defendant Farmer with respect to Plaintiff was justifiable, was for legitimate non-discriminatory and non-retaliatory business reasons, and was not willful, intentional, wanton, malicious, or done in a reckless or knowing manner.

TENTH DEFENSE

Without admitting any wrongdoing with respect to Plaintiff, Defendant Farmer would still have taken the challenged actions without consideration of any alleged impermissible factor.

ELEVENTH DEFENSE

Without admitting that Plaintiff suffered any damages, Plaintiff's claim for damages must be dismissed, or in the alternative limited, to the extent Plaintiff failed to mitigate or was the cause of her claimed damages. Also, any claim for economic damages must be reduced by the amount of employment income earned, or which with reasonable diligence could have been earned, by Plaintiff during the period of time Plaintiff claims she was not permitted to work.

TWELFTH DEFENSE

Without admitting that Plaintiff is entitled to any damages, Plaintiff's claims for compensatory, punitive, and liquidated damages must be dismissed because Plaintiff has failed to plead facts or law sufficient to support the availability of such damages. Also, even if Plaintiff could seek punitive or liquidated damages for the claims asserted, any such damages would be barred because any alleged discriminatory or otherwise unlawful behavior imputed to Defendant Farmer, all of which Defendant Farmer denies, was neither intentional, knowing, reckless, malicious, nor willful and was contrary to Defendant Farmer's good faith efforts to comply with applicable law.

THIRTEENTH DEFENSE

Any claim for equitable relief must be dismissed because Plaintiff has failed to plead facts to support the availability of such relief.

FOURTEENTH DEFENSE

Some or all of Plaintiff's claims are barred by the applicable statute of limitations, including the failure to file this lawsuit within the time period required by the applicable statute. Plaintiff's claims under Georgia law are barred to the extent any action on which her claims are based occurred more than 180 days prior to the filing of her Complaint.

FIFTEENTH DEFENSE

At all times, Defendant Farmer's actions with regard to Plaintiff have been in conformance with all applicable laws, rules, and regulations, and Plaintiff's rights have not been violated.

SIXTEENTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims under O.C.G.A. § 34-6A-4, Rehabilitation Act ("RA") and Family Medical Leave Act ("FMLA") are barred because Defendant Derrick did not employ Plaintiff.

SEVENTEENTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims against individual Defendant Derrick Farmer fail because Georgia law does not impose individual liability for employment claims under O.C.G.A. § 34-6A-4.

EIGHTEENTH DEFENSE

Defendant Farmer at all times acted in good faith and had objectively reasonable grounds to believe that the act(s) or omission(s) identified by Plaintiff did not violate the FMLA, RA, or O.C.G.A. § 34-6A-4.

NINETEENTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred to the extent that she could not perform the essential functions of her position.

TWENTIETH DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred to the extent that she could not perform the essential functions of her position with or without a reasonable accommodation.

TWENTY-FIRST DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred to the extent that she failed to request a reasonable accommodation.

TWENTY-SECOND DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred to the extent that accommodation of her alleged disability, if any, would have caused undue hardship.

TWENTY-THIRD DEFENSE

Any damages that Plaintiff suffered resulted from the acts or omissions of others for whom Defendant Farmer is not liable.

TWENTY-FOURTH DEFENSE

Defendant did not know or have any reason to know of any propensity for any alleged acts of unlawful conduct alleged by Plaintiff.

TWENTY-FIFTH DEFENSE

To the extent as may be shown by the evidence through discovery, Defendant asserts the affirmative defenses of assumption of the risk, contributory/comparative negligence, failure of plaintiff and/or the decedent to exercise ordinary care for the decedent's own safety, failure of plaintiff and/or the decedent to avoid consequences, failure to mitigate damages, accord and satisfaction, arbitration and award, discharge in bankruptcy, duress, estoppel, failure of consideration, fraud, illegality, injury by fellow servant, laches, last clear chance, license, payment, release, res judicata, statute of frauds, statute of limitations, sudden emergency, and waiver.

TWENTY-SIXTH DEFENSE

Any damages that Plaintiff suffered were the direct and proximate result of her own actions and/or inactions, including, but not limited to, her own negligence or assumption of the relevant risks.

TWENTY-SEVENTH DEFENSE

Defendants did not know or have any reason to know of any propensity for any alleged acts of unlawful conduct alleged by Plaintiff.

TWENTY-EIGHTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff's damages are limited to those remedies and those amounts provided for by the statute.

TWENTY-NINETH DEFENSE

Plaintiff is not entitled to any of the relief – equitable, declaratory, legal or attorneys' fees – requested against Defendant Farmer; however, to the extent she is entitled to any damages or other relief, which she is not, any such damages or relief are limited to the relief allowable under the applicable provisions of Georgia law, FMLA and/or RA.
